

National Planning Framework Ireland 2040

Housing for older people.

All new housing developments to have a section comprising of 2 bedroomed units suitable for people downsizing and for older people with special needs so that they can live in their own local community. More sheltered housing in local communities.

Public Buildings

All Public buildings have wheelchair access. All new swimming pools have access for people with disabilities.

Social workers

All people with dementia living in the community or residential have an assigned social worker. All children in foster homes and those at risk should have an assigned social worker. All primary schools should have access to a social worker. More social workers must be employed.